NARRATOR

Translated work will allow you to present your ideas and experience to those from other cultures and backgrounds. If the work is translated well — and it is possible to translate very well — the recipient will respond as if it were originally written in their own language, in fact as if the writer were communicating directly from the recipient's own cultural background.

The quality of a translation can often help you be treated seriously and can even determine everything, including the client's final decision to accept your offer, get a job or be given a grant to study.

Only good translations can help guarantee that your efforts will bring the desired results. This is the kind of translated work you will receive from the translation office Narrator.

Narrator translation office offers professional language services including translation work, verification of texts and proof-reading. We only work with highly-qualified, professional translators who also specialise in checking and editing the finished work which ensures that all the work you receive from us is of the highest quality.

We ensure a complex range of services for companies and organisations – from translating legal acts to everyday correspondence.

We translate press material, academic articles and other texts intended for release.

We also offer our services to private individuals who need a document, form, cover letter, CV or e-mail translated. We translate the following languages:

English
French
German
Russian
Spanish
Italian

also other European and non-European languages.

If you are establishing new contacts, thinking about working or studying abroad please remember:

There are no such things as language barriers with us.
